

Licensing Overview

Named User Licensing

FRL - Online

FRL - Offline

Named User Licensing

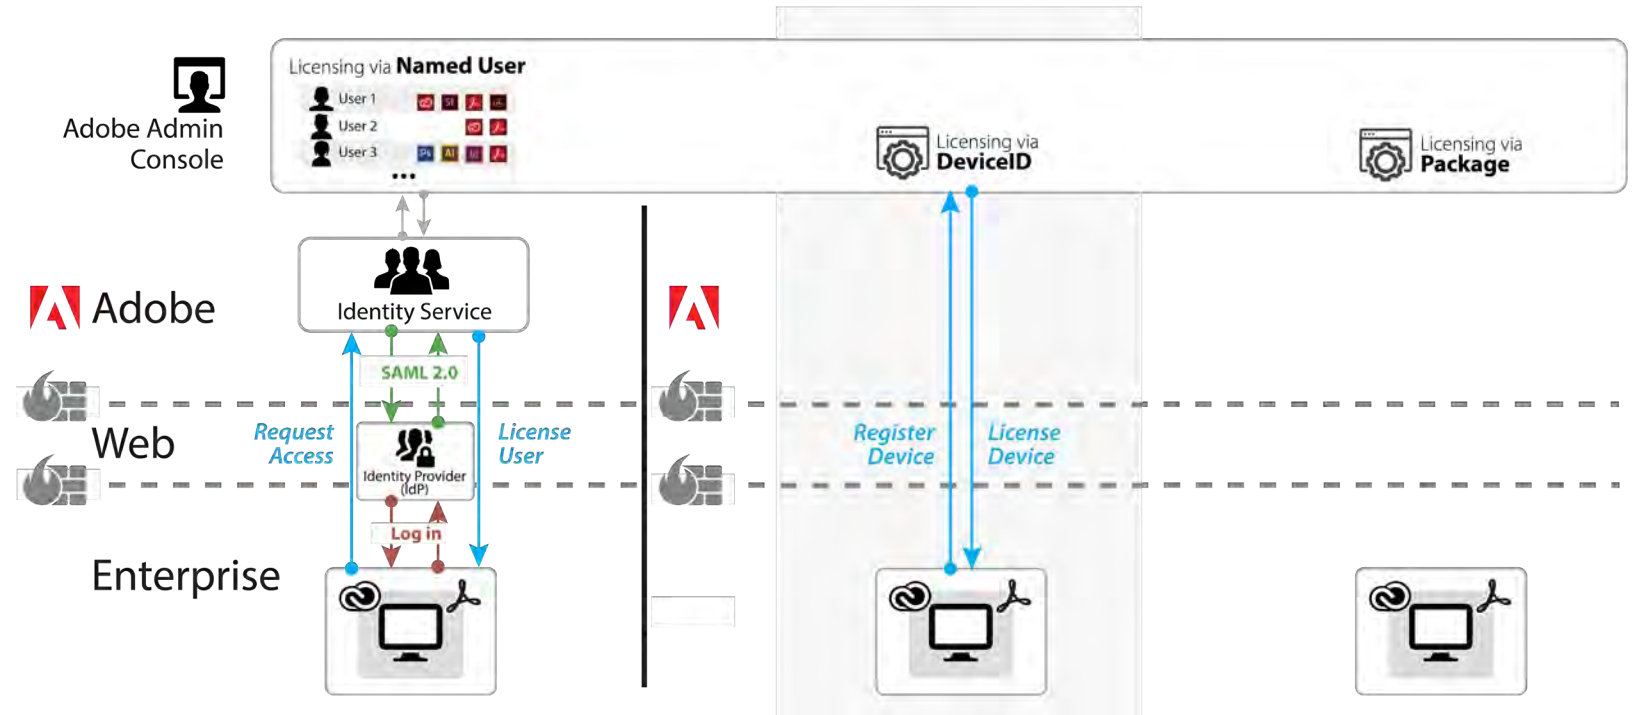

- License request over HTTPS
- Software and service license management using a unique identifier
 - Email (usually)

FRL-Online

- License request over HTTPS
- No user/computer information
- Adobe-signed license specific to the computer
 - lcs-cops.adobe.io

FRL-Offline

- Air-gapped computers without internet access
- License tied to Package and customer's orgID
- No machine binding

Management flexibility

- Online Admin Console
- No self-auditing
- Secure self-service

Simplified Administration

- Automated license management
- Everything is out of the box
- Minimal configuration requirements

Maximum Value per User

- All services and applications available
- Two device activations per user
- Unlimited mobile devices or tablets

More security

- No user data
- No cloud
- Once activated can go offline

Simplified Setup

- Cloud license management

Simplified Renewals

- Connect to internet

More complexity

- Partial self-auditing
- No reporting

Highest security

- No data goes to Adobe
- No cloud
- No machine binding

Highest complexity

- Full self-auditing
- Must touch every device every PoP